Providing for an enumeration of the inhabitants of the tate.

The question pending was on an amendment effered by Mr. Dromson, providing for the appointment of the marshals to take the census by the Secretary of State.

Mr. Hansey opposed the amendment, regarding it a miserable sham to confer patronage upon one man, under the cry of saving four or five dellars to each town in the State.

the State.

Mr. BROOKS moved to strike out the words "or more," giving the Secretary power to appoint "one or more" marshals. He regarded it as giving the Secretary power to appoint one, or five or fifty, as he might determine.

Mr. DICKINSON regarded the clause necessary. Some towns were larger than others, and it was necessary to have an additional marshal.

Ir. Bassop cared little about the proposed amendate and the bill—regarding, however, the general survision of the Secretary of State better than to have so by different heads in counties and districts. He no objection to it. In taking the United States us, the Marshal of the State appointed all his deies, and the returns were all made to him. It was atter which the State should pay. Mr. Struyesant offered the following joint resolution, which lies over under the rule:—

Whereas, by the passage of the act for the organization of the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska the Missouri Compromise was thereby repealed; and whereas, such appeal was urged upon the alleged ground that the centifiction in said Compromise was in violation of the Constitution of the United States; and whereas, there is now in full operation another act which, from the peculiar nature of the subject over which it legislates, is designated as the Compromise of 18:0; Therefore Resolved, (if the Senate concur.) of the Legislature to-day was of little importance. At twelve o'clock the Senate went into secret executive sessien, and confirmed a half dozen notaries, when the doors were thrown open, and that body adjourned over for the day. A few bills only were introduced, and there of minor importance.

The House was in sersion two hours. The unfortumate women are again petitioning the Legislature to grant their rights, which have been so unjustly withheld from them ever since mother Eve ate the bitter apple. Mr. Aitken moved to refer them to a select committee

Mr. Lampest—rather ungallantly, as was remarked—moved that the select committee be taken from the bachelors in the House.

A resolution was offered that the use of the Assembly chamber be granted an evening to the Women's Rights Convention, new in seasion in this city, in order that Ernestiae Rose. Susan B. Anthony, Rev. Antoinette Brown, Eirabeth Cady Stanton, and others, may deliver addresses before the select committee, on women's rights. The resolution not baving been offered within the proper order of business, was objected to by some crusty old bachelor, which laid it upon the table. The ladies on this occasion, seem to have selected the Hous. Mr. Rickerson, from Cairo, Greene county, as their isvorte representative on the floor.

The chamber was vacated a: 12 o'clock, by the members of the House, for the accommodation of the State Agricultural Society.

Granting each equally entitled to adoption, I think, as in all cases of conflicting claims and views, the action of the majority should decide, and the unsuccessful candidate should patriotically submit. We have now a complete State and local ticket, with one exception, and I think that defect should have been supplied. I will not, however, find fault with the action of the convention, believing them actuated by considerations which seemed to them best for the 4 10 7 9 10. As you are aware, I am the nomines of the whigs in this district for member ef Assembly, and of course hope to succeed in the canvass; and having become attached to the order long before my name was mentioned in connection with that nomination, and before I had any intention of becoming a candidate, I did, after my nomination, hope I might prove acceptable to the members of the 4 10 7 9 10. But as the matter stands, I have no other course but to ask an adoption by the Councils in the district favorable to my election, so that our ticket may be fall.

Should you see fit to inform me of the time of your next meeting, I should like to attend it, and, by consent, lay the matter before your Council in person. Should, however, any considerations render it impracticable for me to attend, I would like to have you lay the matter before your Council, and inform me the result. Fraternally yours.

the uninitiated, and as a warning to the rebellious, I send verbatim. It reads as follows:—

New York, Feb. 13, 1855.

Bro. Charles C. Leight Dear sir:—At a meeting of Jasper Chapter No. 35, O. U. A. held Monday evening, Feb. 12, 1856, the following named Brothers—B. C. Bogert, Ru Ton, Felter, Brinkerhoff, and Brower—were appointed a commutee to investigate charges preferred by Bro. A. H. Bogert against you, a copy of which you will find below; and you are hereby notified to appear before add committee on Friday, Feb. 18, at 4 o'clock P. M., at Jasper Chapter Reoms, corner Hudson and Christopher streets.

Truly yours, in the bonds of the order.

35, O. U. A.:— The undersigned charges Charles C. bring the same into contempt, to the injury of the Order at large, and especially the members of Jasper Chapter.

Specifications.

First—That on or about the 3d day of February inst., the said C. C. Leigh did exhibit to the members of the Legislature, in its open servion, a certain tetter addressed officially ty a committee of Jasper Chapter to said U. C. Leigh, conveying to him the views and wishes of this Chapter in regard to his vote on the election of a United States Senator, about to be held in the Legislature of this State.

Second—By his personal denunciation of the Order of United Americans on the said occasion.

New Youn, Feb. 12, 1865.

A. H. BOGERT.

Attached to the above, and adding much to its formidable appearance, is a blood red seal, bearing the figure of a man, generally supposed to be George Washington—though the fidelity of the likeness is questionable—standing upon a wall in a fighting attitude, with a sword in one hand and a star spangled banner in the other, while over his head, with extended wings, flies an American eagle, gracefully holding in its beak a streamer, on which are engraven the words "Jasper Chapter No. 35, O. of U. A."

It is very doubtful whether "Jasper, Chapter No. 35" will have the pleasure of Brother Leigh's company on the 15th of February, at 4 o'clock P. M., at the corner of Hadson and Christopher streets.

You have heard briefly the fact that the Simon Pure order of Know Nothings is now in convention at Syracuse. I learn that the councils are very liberally represented, there being a strong desire to evince the indignation felt against parties whe have sought asseciation with the councils only in order to belray them. It is the intention of the convention to expel all those who, in voting for Seward, violated pledges distinctly made to vote against him. It has also been determined on to extend to councils the authority to publish so much of their official records as will disprove the assertions, so solemnly made by members on the floor of the Assembly chamber, regarding their connection with the order. A pamphiet, subreading their connection with the order. A pamphiet, subreading the main facts, and ahowing up the position of certain parties prior to the recent election, will be issued by authority of the convention. The persons voting for Seward, in violation of pledges, or in defiance of distinct instructions, will be formally drummed out of the order.

Mr. Eames, the member of Assembly from Jefferson, a member of Council No. 278, went up to Byracuss to attend the convention systemay. He was admitted to the room, and a resolution was introduced to give him the opportunity to explain his vote on the Senaturial question, which you are aware was cast for Seward. By his own account, a majority of the convention favored the resolution, but the minority were rampant. They would not suffer him to be heard, denounced him, and eventually got so far excited as to essay to "hustle him out." Upon this the President adjourned the convention for one hour, and Mr. Eames was rangeled away by the back entrance, under a fear of personal violence. This is his own version of the affair.

It is certain that a very bitter feeling prevails against the members who were untrue to the order, and that they will be summarily dealt with by the councils. This is the wisest course the Know Nothings can pursue

Mr. Garss has introduced in the Assembly a bill to amend the "act to abolish distress for rent," passed May 13, 1846, which amends the third section of said act, so as to make it road as follows:—

The said notice may be served personally on the grantee or lessee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns er by leaving a copy thereof at the dwelling-house on the demised premises, with some person of proper age, being or residing thereon; or if there be no such person then at said dwelling-house, then by posting the same on the euter door of said dwelling house; or if there be no such dwelling-house, then by posting the same on the euter door of said dwelling house; or if there be no such dwelling-house, then by posting the same on the euter door of said dwelling house; or if there be no such dwelling-house then by posting the same on the euter door of said dwelling house; or if there be

DESPERATE FIGHT BEWEEN AN ALLIGED BURGLAR AND A POLICE OFFICER.

Yesterday morning, about 5 o'clock, officer Kinner, of the reserved corps, seeing three men in company together in Broadway, under somewhat suspicious circumstances, watched them closely, and followed them to the stances, watched them closely, and followed them to the corner of John and Broadway, where the trie stopped for stances, watched them closely, and followed them to the corner of John and Broadway, where the trie stopped for a few moments, and after being satisfied that no one was watching them, commenced, as is alleged by the officer, to break into the boot and shoe store in the basement at this place. Before they had finished their work, officer Kinner bravely rushed forward from his hiding place, and endeavored to arrest one of the party, whereopon he was set upon by this man, who was armed with a heavy jummy, &c. A brief but sharp struggle ensued between the officer and the alleged burglar, which resulted in the policeman being severely cut across the cheek and jawbone with the jummy in the hands of the burglar, which indicted a deep gash, from which the blood flowed freely. The fellow then made his escape, and run down Broadway pursued by Kinner, who, although weak from lose to blood, kept up the chase with vigor, but was unable to overtake his man. The burglar run down Thames street into Trinity place, where he was secured, after some ineflectual struggles to escape, by one of the First ward police. The prisoner was taken to the Third ward police station house for the remainder of the night, and yesterday forenoon was conveyed to the Chief's office for examination. Here, on being examined, he stated that his name was John Wilson, that he was eighteen years of age, and was by occupation a waiter. He was locked up to answer a charge of burgles, made against him by the officer. Kinner is badly injured, and it will be many days before he can resume his occupation. Had the jimmey struck him an inch lower it would have severed the principal artery of the neck, and would in all probability have resulted in his death. The other two men in company with Wilson escaped when the latter was sought to have been arrested by the officers.

ton held an inquest yesterday at the New York Hospital upon the body of Mary Alley, a woman about 34 years of age, who died from some scalds received by being acsi, dentally pushed on the store containing a kettle of boiling water, which, spilling all over ther head and back, produced such severe injuries that she died from the effects in a day or two afterwards. A doctor, named sterlings, who attended the wounded woman, it is alleged, gave a certificate of her death, and on its being brought to the City Inspector the latter refused to recognize it, and informed the Coroner of the occurrence. Coroner Hitton feeling it his duty to hold an investigation in the matter, suirmoned a jury, and yesterday held an inquest upon the body, when the following verdict was rendered:—That the decased came to he death by scalds from a kettle of boiling water, the result of a scuffle between James McGuire and Peter Cassidy, at 24 Greenwich street, January 21, 1855. Further, we deprecate the practice of physicians transcending their authority by giving certificates in these and other casualties, and request the Grand Jury to call on the City inspector for the necessary evidence for indictments in such cases to premote a public good, and that the ends of public justice may not be defeated. The evidence in this case is to be laid before the District Attorney, and by him, if he thinks proper, transferred to the Grand Jury for their action.
